ELM Technology Corporation

Quality Policy

Our company is devoted to increasing the satisfaction of our customers. This can be achieved by improving the way we develop, design, manufacture and market our semi-conductor products.

We always aim to clearly understand our customers' needs and we strive to meet their demands to the best of our ability, thus ensuring that the number of dissatisfied customers is zero.

Furthermore, our high standards of professionalism mean total compliance with all the statutory laws and regulations related to our business.
